The Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition's Mission: We are a grassroots network of community organizations and individuals working for just immigration policies and practices that respect human rights and the dignity of immigrants, through education, services, and advocacy.

What do members do?

- Support the Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition's mission
- Help LBIRC implement its mission in our local community, state, and nation.
- Help organize and/or volunteer for LBIRC events, campaigns or projects; contribute your talents and skills.
- Pay annual dues (based on a sliding scale); membership is for one-year.

What do members receive?

- Membership card and an LBIRC gift (t-shirt, stickers, book markers, etc. depending on availability)
- Regular updates on immigration-related issues and LBIRC activities.
- Priority registration and early invitations for legal clinics, workshops, leadership trainings, and special events.
- An active role in one of the most dynamic, youth-led movements for change in the U.S. today.

*For low-income residents, we may waive or discount the fee; please contact us to confirm this. Join today by returning this form or visit <http://lbirc.org/membership> to register online.
